A transfer fee is required to process an ownership change. To receive the lowest possible fee, the buyer must be an AQHA member. There are three types of membership - open, amateur and youth. For a complete listing of current fees and to determine the type of membership you need, please refer to our Web site at www.aqha.com, the AQHA rule book or you may call our office and one of our representatives will be glad to assist you.

DECEASED/SOLD WITHOUT PAPERS: If a horse is deceased or has been sold without papers, please return the original Certificate of Registration along with a signed statement providing the date of death or sale. We will return the certificate to you for deceased horses.

CORRECTIONS: If information on the certificate needs to be corrected, a correction affidavit must be filed (form available from AQHA) as well as current photographs and a correction fee. If it is an update to change to a gelding, please send a signed statement giving us the approximate date gelded. To add a brand, please include a diagram of the brand showing the location. There is no charge for geld and brand additions.

PHOTOGRAPH REPLACEMENT: If you would like to have the photograph on the front of the certificate replaced with a more current picture, please submit a 1/4 left or right side view photograph using AQHA's guidelines for taking photographs. There is a replacement fee for updating the photographs.
